CLAUSES

Double Insurance Clause

Maritime Shipment Claim Note

In the event of any claim, the Policyholder/Insured or the recipient must immediately contact the nearest Lloyd's agent to have the claim assessed. They must complete all necessary steps to obtain subrogation against the carrier/ship owner responsible for the claim. For maritime transport, they must obtain a bank guarantee from the ship owner or the ship's P&I club insurer, providing sufficient security for compensation. For road, air, and rail transport, a guarantee must be obtained from the carrier. If these obligations are not met, the Insurer reserves the right to reduce the indemnity paid to the extent of the injured party's subrogation rights, in accordance with the general and special terms of the policy. Reasonable expenses incurred in this process may be covered by the Insurer if it is determined that the claim was caused by a covered risk.

Foreign Currency TL Note

In the event of a payable claim, the bank's foreign exchange selling rate as of the payment date is used as the basis for determining deductible and compensation values, provided that the exchange rate stated on the policy is not exceeded under any circumstances.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Other Insurance Note

In the event that the Assured shall also have placed specific insurance at any location covered hereunder, this insurance shall only be held for the excess amount of loss over that which shall be collectible from other insurance.

Premium Payment Clause for Foreign Currency Policies

Policy premium is essentially to be paid in the foreign currency that is stated on the front page of the policy. In the case that premiums are paid in TL, the cash selling rate of the bank specified on the front page of policy on the premium payment date will be valid.

Insurance Amount Clause For Foreign Currency Policies

The sum insured is the conversion of the foreign currency assurance amount indicated on the front page of the policy into TL.

Special Condition of Indemnity Payments for Policies Issued in Foreign Currency

The indemnity amount to be paid will be calculated in the currency specified on the front page of the policy. Indemnity calculations will be made as follows:

1. The indemnity amount must be paid in the currency specified on the front page of the policy.
2. If indemnity payment is requested in TRY, the currency conversion process will first be carried out, if necessary, in accordance with articles 3 and 4 listed below, into the currency specified on the front page of the policy. The bank's exchange selling rate on the indemnity payment date will then be used for indemnity calculations.
3. If the currency of the amount on the invoice, proforma invoice, proposal, etc. document subject to indemnity payments differs from the currency specified on the front page of the policy, the amount in question will be: a) If the loss or damage is repaired by the insured before the indemnity payment date, the amount on the invoice for repair of the damage will be converted to the currency specified on the front page of the policy based on the exchange selling rate of the bank specified on the front page of the policy as of the invoice payment date. b) If the loss or damage is not repaired by the insured before the indemnity payment date, the amount on the proforma invoice, proposal, etc. will be converted to the currency specified on the front page of the policy based on the exchange rate of the bank specified on the front page of the policy as of the indemnity payment date.
4. If the currency of the deductibles stated in the policy differs from the currency specified on the front page of the policy, the deductible amount to be applied in the policy currency will be calculated based on the exchange selling rate of the bank specified on the front page of the policy as of the policy issuance date.

Loss Adjuster Appointment Clause

In the event of a potential loss, the insurer will appoint the loss adjuster and pay the adjustment fee. However, if the insured also wishes to exercise their right to appoint a loss adjuster, the insured must submit their request for the appointment of a loss adjuster to the insurer in writing, and the entire fee for the loss adjuster to be appointed by the insured must be paid by the insured.

War Strike Exclusion Note

War and strike risks are held uncovered.

Temperature Controlled Transport Exclusion Note

Unless expressly stated otherwise in the insurance policy, if the insured goods are transported in a vehicle equipped with a temperature control device, deterioration of the goods due to a temperature difference resulting from a continuous stoppage of at least 24 hours or more due to a malfunction of the vehicle's cooling or ventilation system is covered, provided that a report and relevant documents documenting this deterioration are submitted to the insurer. Deterioration resulting from any other cause is excluded from the coverage. The coverage is valid provided that the vehicle is equipped with a temperature measuring and recording device with its own power source, independent of the carrier.

Scope of Policy

Anadolu Anonim Türk Sigorta Şirketi guarantees the covers mentioned in the policy in respect of the declaration of the insured, trusting on the truthfulness of this declaration, subject to the General Conditions, Special Conditions, clauses or the product booklet including prementioned information. The covers you can benefit in the scope of this policy are limited with the covers defined in the policy you paid for. The booklet you're given may include some explanations about the covers which are out of the scope of your policy. Only the policy (not the booklet) will be essential about which covers you have the right to benefit from. On condition that the policy is issued with premium discount in respect to the declaration of the insured at the contract time, the situation of having gained the right for premium discount should be documented in case of any loss. Otherwise, a deduction at the premium discount rate will be applied to the indemnity amount, according to relevant article of the Insurance General Conditions. The insurance warranty rendered by this Insurance Policy is limited with the cases defined on the policy in the general and special conditions of the insurance as covered by the warranty. No other case than those expressly defined to be covered by the warranty is under insurance protection regardless separately counted or not among the cases that are out of the coverage. The Insurer shall be informed one month prior to the expiration date, in case the policy is requested to be renewed.

Premium Payments and Policy Cancellation Clause

Entire insurance premium shall have to be paid at the time of signing of the contract against delivery of the policy. Insurer's obligation shall in no way commence unless the premium payment is made, regardless of whether the policy is delivered or not.

In cases when it's agreed that the premium is paid by the policy holder by credit card rather than in cash upon her/his consent and request, and that a delay payment by credit card is granted to the policy holder, the liability of the insurer commences upon the withdrawal of the premium from the credit card on the pre-agreed day.

The payment place of insurance premium is any Türkiye İş Bankası branch, Anadolu Sigorta or the agency which represented Anadolu Sigorta in the establishment of insurance contract.

Premium payment is realized in cash either against bank advice or receipt. Nevertheless, the payment can be made by giving credit card instruction to the agency or also by using Türkiye İş Bankası interactive transactions invoice instruction method.

The payments made to places not listed above or payment methods not listed above does not eliminate premium obligation.
